

CODER III

STUART, FL

Summary

Identifies, reviews, and assigns complex ICD-9-CM, ICD-10-CM, PCS codes, POA and PSI indicators, surgical complications, and CPT codes. Abstracts clinical information from inpatient/outpatient types. All coding and abstracting is for the purpose of reimbursements, research, and compliance with federal regulations and other agencies utilizing established coding principles and protocols.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Complies with established corporate and departmental policies, procedures, objectives, quality assurance methods, and safety codes. Demonstrates compliance with licensing, regulatory and accrediting agency provisions as required.
- Consistently demonstrates appropriate and professional communication behavior toward patients, customers, and coworkers. Cooperates with Management and peers to promote an environment of teamwork and collaboration.
- Clarifies complex discrepancies in documentation and coding; assures accuracy and timeliness of coding/abstracting assignments to expedite the billing process and to facilitate data retrieval for physician access and ongoing patient care.
- Performs follow-up complex coding of medical records as a result of internal or external reviews which have identified Coding or DRG discrepancies.
- Supports special studies in relation to coding and abstracting information according to policies and procedures.
- Maintains knowledge and skills; reads current coding resources clinical information, videos, etc.
- Meets or exceeds productivity and quality standards and established department benchmarks.
- Extracts pertinent information from clinical notes, operative notes, radiology reports, laboratory reports, (including Pathology), procedure records, specialty forms, etc.
- Determines complex code assignment pertinent to diagnostic workups, surgical techniques, advanced technology and special services, identifies medical and surgical complications and untoward events for accurate MS-DRG / APR-DRG or APC assignment.
- Maintains annual mandatory education requirements specific to position as mandated by Cleveland Clinic Martin Health.

- Performs all other duties as assigned or requested.

More Information / To Apply:

<https://jobs.clevelandclinic.org/job-detail.html?mh20793-coder-iii>

