

Revenue Integrity Auditor

St. Petersburg, FL

Summary

The Revenue Integrity Auditor is responsible for the evaluation, monitoring, analysis and reporting of various revenue cycle functions that support the integrity of our organizations revenue.

Responsibilities:

- Research, monitor, communicate and ensure adherence around organizational billing policies and regulatory requirements at Federal, State, and local levels that impact revenue cycle.
- Identifies opportunities for process improvement and develops and monitors action plans.
- Supports revenue cycle strategic initiatives. Monitors, audits and communicates outcomes to operational departments to ensure compliance with all billing related workflows.
- Collaborates with Johns Hopkins compliance offices. Maintains relationships equally respectful to all and performs assessment and observations in an unbiased and consistent manner.
- Works with Revenue Cycle Educators to ensure tip sheets or training material is current to properly explain rules and laws specific to Florida.

Qualifications

- A minimum of a High School diploma, GED, Certificate of Completion or equivalent achievement - Bachelor's degree is preferred
- Minimum five years of experience in hospital healthcare, revenue integrity or revenue cycle or billing operations
- Experience leading projects or process improvements around revenue cycle functions.
- Experience with a progressive focus on charge to payment relationships and patient account functions and understanding of healthcare financing and reimbursement mechanisms (FFS, DRGs, EAPGs, CCI, MUE)

- Experience with clinical documentation and coding, including strong knowledge around CPT, HCPCS, ICD10-CM/PCS, revenue codes and code assignment

For more Information / To Apply:

<https://jobs.hopkinsmedicine.org/job/revenue-integrity-auditor-finance-johns-hopkins-all-children-272363-c562a/>