

Coding Specialist (Medicare Risk Adjustment)

Hanover, MD

Full Time – Day Shift

Posted: October 6, 2021

Position Summary

Responsible for all aspects of coding, provider education, practice improvement, quality assurance and compliance with Federal payer documentation guidelines. Serves as JHHC expert on coding questions. Exercises independent judgment and decision making on a regular basis. Responsible for developing coding and billing change procedures.

Knowledge

Requires familiarity Medical Terminology, Anatomy and Physiology courses required or demonstrated appropriate knowledge. Requires a comprehensive and expert understanding of physician billing and coding regulations related to CPT/ICD-9/ICD-10/HCPCS coding. Comprehensive knowledge and compliance of HIPAA rules and regulations in the dissemination of patient Protected Health Information (PHI). Must be familiar with reimbursement methodologies (HCC) and guidelines. Capable of advance problem solving in medical billing and coding.

Skills

Excellent written and oral communication skills with the ability to communicate effectively with clinic staff, providers, bill staff, management and administration. Serves as expert on coding questions.

Required Licensure, Certification, Etc.

AAPC and/or AHIMA Certification is required (CPC, CCS, etc.).

For more Information / To Apply:

<https://jobs.hopkinsmedicine.org/job/coding-compliance-specialist-coding-johns-hopkins-health-care-356483-68574/>