- Analyze information gathered by investigation and report findings and recommendations as a written summary and/or presentation.
- Conducts investigation-related training.
- Supports legal proceedings as needed, including testifying in court or working with law enforcement personnel to prepare cases for civil or criminal actions.
- Negotiates settlement agreements to resolve disputes.
- Maintain current knowledge of relevant laws, regulations and standards.
- Participates in special projects as required.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's Degree in related discipline, or the equivalent combination of education, professional training and work experience.
- 5-8 years of related investigative experience.
- Advanced level skills in Excel.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Strong listening and observation skills.
- Attention to detail and high level of accuracy.
- Effective organizational and prioritization skills with multi-tasking ability
- Preferred certifications:
 - Accredited Healthcare Fraud Investigator (AHFI),
 - Certified Fraud Specialist (CFS),
 - Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE),
 - Certified Forensic Interviewer (CFI), or
 - Certified in Healthcare Compliance (CHC).

JOB DEMANDS:

- This is a work-at-home position. Access to high-speed internet is required (all other equipment will be provided).
- Must be able to sit and use a computer keyboard for extended periods of time
- Travel up to 15%
- Must have flexibility and willingness to participate in the work processes of an international organization, including conference calls scheduled to accommodate global time zones.
- After hours and/or weekend work required where necessary for major deliverables/deadlines (not consistent)
- For the safety of our employees and those considering employment with Cotiviti, we are currently conducting all interviews virtually. In addition, the majority of the Cotiviti team is currently working remotely, and we are onboarding new hires remotely as well. As we monitor the pandemic, these arrangements may change and we will update accordingly.
