

Coding Auditor, Health Information Management

Baptist Health

Job Location: Remote
Full Time/Days

JOB SUMMARY:

Serve as an expert in Outpatient Prospective Payment System or Inpatient Prospective Payment System. Responsible for maintaining coded data quality through ongoing quality review and assessment of outpatient or inpatient records. Performs con-current audits on accuracy of APC, ASC or MSDRGs as well as on quality of medical record documentation needed for accurate coding. Prepare reports, identifies trends and takes appropriate actions in response. Works with HIM coding management in developing education and training for coders, clinical department and/or physicians for documentation improvement for all BSHF. Create consistency and efficiency in outpatient or inpatient claims processing and data collection to optimize APC, ASC or DRG reimbursement and facilitate data quality in hospital outpatient or inpatient services ensuring regulatory compliance. Estimated salary range for this position is $62350.56 - $81055.73 / year depending on experience.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- Minimum Required Experience: 2 Years
- Proficient in ICD9CM/PCS, ICD10CM/PCS , CPT4, and HCPCS coding conventions and guidelines
- Encoder and National and Local Coverage Determinations
- Proficient in Word, Excel and PowerPoint

EDUCATION/LICENSES/CERTIFICATIONS:

- High School, Cert, GED
- Prefer Bachelor's Degree in Health Information Management or equivalent
- AHIMA Certified Coding Specialist
- Prefer AHIMA approved ICD10CM/PCS trainer

FOR MORE INFORMATION/TO APPLY:

<https://careers.baptisthealth.net/us/en/job/131709/Coding-Auditor-Remote-Health-Information-Management-FT-08A-4-30P>