

Senior Manager of Revenue Cycle Informatics

SouthEast Alaska Regional Health Consortium

Job Location: Juneau, AK

Full Time/Days

JOB SUMMARY:

Responsible for the management of revenue integrity to include CDM management, charge capture, revenue reconciliation, denials management, and reporting and analytics. Responsible for the management of instructional design strategy and framework for provider and clinical staff training. Responsible for the management of business applications for specific systems and revenue cycle workflows. Participates in the entire revenue cycle system life cycle to provide application of analysis concepts, including evaluation of current state against desired future state with consideration to policy, compliance, evidence, quality, operational standardization, workflow implications, reliability, and usability of the system.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- Five or more years' experience utilizing health information technology programs, devices, and hardware to data to inform program development, implementation, and policy with at least three years of clinical informatics or revenue cycle informatics work experience.
- Work on different projects simultaneously in fast environment and appropriately handle overlapping commitments and deadlines.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Products including Word, Excel and PowerPoint
- Less than 10% travel expected.

EDUCATION/LICENSES/CERTIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's degree – required
- Seven or more years' experience working in the U.S. healthcare industry may be used to substitute the Bachelor's Degree requirement.

FOR MORE INFORMATION/TO APPLY:

<https://careers-search.icims.com/jobs/7534/senior-manager-of-revenue-cycle-informatics/job?mobile=false&width=1714&height=500&bga=true&needsRedirect=false&jan1offset=-300&jun1offset=-240>