

Coding Auditor - Interventional Radiology

Radiology Partners

Job Location: Remote

Full Time/Days

JOB SUMMARY:

Radiology Partners is seeking a Medical Coding Auditor who will be accountable for conducting coding and data quality audits of all imaging modalities in the Coding department. The Medical Coding Auditor will be responsible for correcting coding errors, reviewing denials and providing thorough investigation of re-coding for submission. Will work with the Coding Manager on implementing the coding review workflow that includes but not limited to sampling methodology, medical record review/audit approach, validation criteria, audit result reporting, root cause analysis and corrective action plan.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- Must have experience coding Interventional/Diagnostic Radiology procedures and the ability to organize and prioritize work and manage multiple priorities
- 2+ years with Interventional Radiology auditing required
- Experience with vascular and/or open vascular auditing a plus
- Excellent attention to detail
- Ability to interact and communicate effectively with Radiology staff
- 2+ years of coding and abstracting experience with ICD-9 – ICD-10 preferred
- Experience and proficiency in Radiology coding highly preferred
- Proficient use of Microsoft Office applications (Word, Excel, Access) and internet resources

EDUCATION/LICENSES/CERTIFICATIONS:

- CIRCC and/or CPC certification through the American Health Information Management Technician (AHIMA) as one of the following:
 - Registered Health Information Management Technician (RHIT), Registered Health Information Management Technician (RHIA), Certified Coding Specialist (CCS), or Certified Coding Specialist-Physician Based (CCS-P), or certified through the American Association of Procedural Coders (AAPC) as a Certified Professional Coder (CPC)

FOR MORE INFORMATION/TO APPLY:

<https://radpartners.avature.net/externalcareers/JobDetail/Coding-Auditor-Interventional-Radiology/14977>