

EMTALA Compliance Basics

Emergency Medical Treatment and Labor Act

A Continuing Education Training Program

Online, On-Demand Training 24/7

This course is online and on-demand, with no scheduled classes to attend during your 45-day access to course materials, and is designed for hospitals, Critical Access Hospitals (CAHs), emergency department physicians, providers on-call to the emergency department as specialists, as well as Emergency Medical System (EMS) ambulance services where EMTALA rules apply. Perfect training for those new to hospital or physician compliance, new providers, auditors and EMS owners.

Earn Continuing Education Units (CEUs)

2 CEUs: This program has been approved for 2 continuing education units by the American Institute of Healthcare Compliance for AIHC® certified professionals. These continuing education units may be applied towards the Core CEUs for CHA, CIFHA and OHCC or towards the Ethics Category CEU Renewal Requirements for ALL AIHC® credentialed members.

The Emergency Medical Treatment and Labor Act, better known as “EMTALA,” is a federal law that requires anyone coming to an emergency department to be stabilized and treated, regardless of their insurance status or ability to pay. EMTALA Compliance Basics provides 3 short lessons summarizing various points of EMTALA and crisis standards of care.
