

Healthcare Compliance Consultant

PeaceHealth

Job Location: Vancouver, WA

Full Time/Days

JOB SUMMARY:

Using expert knowledge of compliance practices, the Healthcare Compliance Consultant supports the Healthcare Compliance Manager in developing and maintaining the Healthcare Compliance Program for PeaceHealth. The individual in this position is responsible for conducting complex, process-related compliance investigations; participating in proactive annual work plan audits; and monitoring related compliance across the system and/or by assigned network or operational specialty area. The Healthcare Consultant is responsible for identifying, assessing, and recommending corrective actions through root cause analysis to support operational compliance with state and federal laws and rules. This position also contributes to the development and maintenance of a compliance program in accordance with the Office of Inspector General (OIG) general compliance guidelines and maintains an effective compliance program based upon the seven (7) elements promulgated by the OIG.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- Minimum of 7 years Required: Relevant healthcare or other applicable compliance experience and/or clinical operations experience and
- Preferred: Experience with the 7-elements of a compliance program and
- Preferred: Medical records experience

EDUCATION/LICENSES/CERTIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's Degree Required: Healthcare Administration or equivalent discipline, or equivalent skills, training, and experience
- Master's Degree Preferred
- Required: within 1-1/2 Yrs Certified in Healthcare Compliance

FOR MORE INFORMATION/TO APPLY:

<https://careers.peacehealth.org/jobs/17137308-healthcare-compliance-consultant-organizational-integrity>