

Chief Healthcare Compliance Officer

Genentech

Job Location: San Francisco, CA

Full Time/Days

JOB SUMMARY:

Genentech, a member of the Roche group, is seeking an exceptionally qualified compliance leader to serve as the Chief Healthcare Compliance Officer. As Chief Healthcare Compliance Officer, you will be responsible for setting the vision and strategy for compliance and overseeing the comprehensive compliance program for Genentech, a member of the Roche group. You will be responsible for architecting, managing and overseeing the governance and strategic framework for compliance, working in conjunction with senior leaders across the organization to support Genentech, and ensure sustainable growth. You will foster and further strengthen a culture of integrity and an industry exemplar compliance program, drive compliance risk and opportunity management, foster continuous improvement of the compliance and business sustainability processes, all while supporting the organization with an effective and proactive business-oriented approach. This will be facilitated via your leadership of a team of compliance professionals, which will be in charge of providing advice and guidance across the organization on matters related to compliance at Genentech.

You will report directly to Roche's Head of Global Legal Pharma & General Counsel of Genentech, and be a member of their Global Legal Pharma Leadership Team. You will also have dotted line reporting to the CEO of Genentech, as well as a dotted line reporting to the Roche Group Chief Compliance Officer. You will also lead the compliance committee of senior leaders across the Company to set forth the compliance strategy and governance. This will foster a deep and timely understanding of all activities, along with a proactive and effective co-creation of compliant and sustainable solutions. The leader will also report regularly to the Genentech CEO and Board of Directors on compliance matters.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- A minimum of 15+ years of direct U.S. compliance experience in a Compliance department of a large biotech/pharmaceutical company
- At least 8 years of experience leading/transforming a team and successfully managing and developing people, ideally including management of people managers
- Substantial working knowledge of U.S. healthcare and regulatory law.

EDUCATION/LICENSES/CERTIFICATIONS:

- A United States law degree (J.D.) from an accredited institution

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- This role is located at Genentech's South San Francisco, California campus. A remote working arrangement is not available.
- Relocation assistance is available for this position.
