HIM Clinical Documentation Audit Analyst

Carle Health

Job Location: Remote

Full Time/Days

JOB SUMMARY:

Responsible for evaluating the accuracy, quality, compliance, and effectiveness of the Clinical Documentation Integrity (CDI) program through retrospective and concurrent audits. Identifies documentation improvement opportunities, monitors compliance with organizational and regulatory standards, develops educational interventions, and supports denials prevention and revenue integrity initiatives. Regularly audits current FTE and PRN CDI staff to ensure organizational accuracy quality requirements are met. Reviews DRG denials and provides information to the denials team related to appealing the encounters. Supports appropriate coding, and meets coding guidelines, regulatory and organizational standards.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- Auditing; Acute care coding

EDUCATION/LICENSES/CERTIFICATIONS:

- College Diploma: Health Information Mgt
- Certifications: Certified Coding Specialist (CCS) - American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA); Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) - American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA); Registered Health Information Administrator (RHIA) - American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA)

FOR MORE INFORMATION/TO APPLY:

https://careers.carlehealth.org/careers-home/jobs/25530?lang=en-us